Flasque resolution of linear algebraic groups, part II

Jean-Louis Colliot-Thelene
CNRS and Universite Paris-Sud

Abstract: To study arithmetic properties of linear algebraic groups, one uses Galois cohomology to reduce the problem to the case of simply connected groups. The literature contains two types of such reduction; I shall describe a new more canonical one.

Tuesday, May 29, 2007, 2:00 pm
Mathematics and Science Center, E408