Galois algebras, Hasse principle and induction-restriction methods

Eva Bayer-Fluckiger
Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, Lausanne

Abstract: The aim of this talk is to prove a local-global principle for the existence of self-dual normal bases for Galois algebras. The proof involves a restriction-induction result for $G$-quadratic forms (provided $G$ has the “odd determinant property”) that is of independent interest.

Tuesday, October 18, 2011, 3:00 pm
Mathematics and Science Center: E406