

On rainbow Hamilton cycles in uniform hypergraphs

Andrzej Dudek, Western Michigan University

It is well known that if the edges of the complete graph K_n are colored so that no color appears more than cn times (c is an absolute constant), then there is a Hamilton cycle in which each edge is a different color. In this talk, we generalize this result for uniform hypergraphs.

This is joint work with A. Frieze and A. Ruciński.