

Parking will be available in the Bookstore deck, next to the Math and Science Center. It will be free on both Saturday and Sunday.

Enter from Oxford Road.

1. Get to the round-about at Emory Village (Starbucks and Everybodys on one side, Emory on the other) on North Decatur Road.

2. Drive down Oxford Road.

3. Continue along Oxford Road passing the Barnes and Noble at Emory building and then immediately turning right into the lane leading to the deck.

4. Exit from the deck on the top level and the Math and Science Center will be on your left.

5. Take a ticket upon entering and use it to open the gate when you exit.
